STEP THREE ALIGNMENT

Experience The Shift!!!

IN SYNC OR OUT OF SYNC THAT IS THE QUESTION!

- Do you feel as though you are missing out on God's promises?
- Do you feel like everyone else is advancing and leaving you behind?
- Are you unsure of yourself and afraid to make a move?
- Have you gathered the sheer will power and strength to get up a make a move only to come crashing back down to ground zero?

It's time to tap into your real spiritual power and get divinely aligned with your true purpose. No doubt about it, everyone has a calling, a purpose, or a reason for being. It is time to stop running in circles, or being stuck in the wrong place or operating in an old season with an old anointing. When you become divinely aligned you will have joy, peace, passion, energy, excitement, enthusiasm, and lasting spiritual success.

Now that you are becoming aware of you and you are now awakened to your DIVINE SELF, it is time to go to the next step and be aligned with your true purpose.

So then, the answer to the age old question...

Who Am I?

You are a spiritual being made in the image and likeness of God, The Great I AM. You come from God. That is where you want to get your identify now.

- ◆ You are not your circumstances
- ◆ You are not your experiences
- ◆ You are not who they say you are
- ◆ You are all powerful and pure potential!!!

TAKING PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY... HYDAIHYDE How Your Do Anything Is How You Do Everything!

Many times in our quest for success, we tend to put the cart before the horse. In other words we do everything in our power to succeed based on what we have seen, or what we are comparing ourselves to in the moment. So many of God's people are wearing themselves out running to and fro, trying this and doing that—but today we are going to activate the process of being divinely aligned.

YOUR SELF IMAGE

The image you hold of yourself is king. That's what calls the shots. Your self-image is stored in your subconscious mind. It doesn't matter what you say through your conscious mind, if what you truly think or believe about yourself don't match that the success you desire to manifest, success will continue to elude you. Whatever you manifest on the outside has its origin and foundation on the inside.

Step Three: Alignment

Because of the different things you may have experienced in your lifetime, most people have a negative self image. When the image you hold for yourself is negative, you will talk yourself out of blessings, opportunities, new experiences, etc—all the while blaming someone or something else for the reason you can't seem to get ahead.

THE KEY TO GETTING OUT:

1. You are not a victim. You already have the key to your success. There is a multi-dimensional formula taking place that will allow you to serve the world with your own distinct, unique ability. You have:
  - Your divine purpose (This has to do with what you have been sent here to do and who you have been sent to touch!)
  - Your gifts, talents, and abilities (This has to do with the tools you have been given to work your purpose)
  - Your SASS™ (This has to do with how you show up—flow out of your Divine Self to deliver your unique ability to the world)
  - Together, these elements constitute (Inner and Outer congruency which is translated into spiritual success!)

Purpose + Gifts + SASS = Spiritual Success

Step Three: Alignment

2. You must have what Napoleon Hill calls “A Definite Major Purpose.”

This is why we first spend time with your getting clear about who you are and what you are here to do. If you are not sure of those foundational pieces, it doesn't matter if I tell you:

- ◆ You are powerful
- ◆ You are going to be a multi- millionaire
- ◆ God want to use you to do great things
- ◆ You are going to impact your generation
- ◆ There is a business you should start now
- ◆ Your ideal mate is just around the corner
- ◆ You are to make a killing in the stock market
- ◆ You are a powerfully anointed vessel

It doesn't matter what anyone tells you. Again this all goes back to your self-image. If you don't see yourself doing that you will never do that.

3. Start using your “Spiritual Success Tools” to start making a big shift in managing your spirit every day.

- ◆ Use the power of repetition to start reprogramming yourself on a cellular level.
- ◆ Learn how to stay in the “feeling good” place always. This is what keeps you aligned with godliness.

CLARITY

WORK SHEET #1

You may notice that when it is time to get clear around your purpose and what you have been sent here to do, often times you will find yourself in a state of confusion. Remember I told you that one of the jobs of your ego/flesh is to keep you small, keep you stuck in your comfort zone. Many times when you begin to take action you will notice you are thrown into confusion and you don't know what to do or how to do it.

Everything you need is inside. The following exercise will help you gain more clarity.

1. Make a list of all the things you are doing now that you know in your heart you should not be doing, example,; Saying yes when you should say no. Doing things to be accepted, holding on to things out of fear, etc.

Step Three: Alignment

2. If you had 50 Million dollars today, tax free, and you were in perfect health, but in one year you are told you would have to die, what you do right now? Take your time, dig deep, and write with lotssss of details! (Remember failure is impossible) what would you do?

SETTING INTENTIONS

WORK SHEET # 2

Inner Intention

This is the part of the sacred work that will keep you safe, on track, and creating. When you look inside and gage your thoughts, it is vital that you are honest in your heart with what you desires. At this point you should partner with the Holy Spirit which is your divine inner guidance system. Remember your intentions must stay at the forefront of everything you do.

Example: You may tell yourself you want to make more money. Or you want your business to expand, get more clients, etc. What you must really determine is the following:

1. What is it that you believe more money will bring you? (Tap into how you want to feel because you have more money, more business, etc.)
Your Inner intentions are about how you want to FEEL!

Outer Intention

2. Your outer intention is about what you want to see. (This is about what you want to create) Remember if there is a struggle on the outside, it is because there is a struggle on the inside. Start resetting your self-image.
