

FRESH START ACTIVATION PRAYER

Today, I make a commitment to myself and the God in me that I will move forward and fulfill my spiritual assignment, (destiny). I choose to release old mindsets of lack and limitation. I call forth the divine light of the Holy Spirit to Expose and eliminate every enemy to my success and prosperity.

I release all soul-ties, associations, and affiliations that would hold me hostage to a life of stagnation and procrastination. I break the power of all mental blockages, and invisible prisons of fear and intimidation.

I now set a watch at the door of my mouth. I release: murmuring, complaining, judging, criticizing, gossip, slander, envy, strife, bitterness, and jealousy. Today I will not blame anyone or anything for what appears to be lacking in my life. My life is a divine reflection of God dwelling in me.

I release: Laziness, procrastination, lethargy, slothfulness, and inertia—any and all things that will prevent me from moving forward and taking bold, decisive, and authentic action.

I affirm: I am now alert and attentive and I open myself to receive divinely inspired ideas that will prosper me. I welcome these ideas, I embrace them, I write them down, put them into action, and I use them.

I am made in the image and likeness of God therefore I am a creative being and a co-creator with God. I take firm action today to speak and change my world. I am well able to perform that which God has sent me here to do.

I dedicate myself, my time, and my resources to advancing God's agenda through me. I command all my good to come to me now without delay!

I now walk in divine love, peace, joy, wealth and health. Amen.
