WEEK EIGHT ~ACTIVATION PT 3

Activate: To turn on, accelerate, or set motion

In this step you will use a four-point strategy to change your life.

1. The art of thinking deeply and intently for powerful results
2. Seeing with the eyes of the Spirit and Speaking with power and authority to shape and create your world
3. Activate your creative/God mind.
4. You will harness your inner ability to ask and receive. You will learn the art of allowing.

Spiritual Success Key # 1 Activating The Power of Clarity

Let's get ready to peel the onion back even further as we activate your creative mind on a deeper level with clarity!

Clarity: Cleanness or lucidity as to perception or understanding; freedom from indistinctness or ambiguity.

I would dare say that the number one reason that people continue to struggle is due to a lack of clarity. When you are not clear about several important factors necessary for success--struggle, lack, and unhappiness is bound to be on board.

I have found this to be true in the Christian Community, people are not really willing to take responsibility for their success and do the sacred work in order to prosper. I am so glad that that day is coming to an end here and now.

It is so important that you don't rush through this Boot Camp without ensuring that you are implementing these principles that can be the catalyst to changing your life. This is the breakthrough you have been waiting for. I find this to be a sad fact--we know how to struggle, suffer, and take all kinds of abuse, but when it comes to getting clear about what you want and taking action, we can't seem to do it. There are two things you must always ask yourself and that is:

1. What Do I really want? (For my life, business, ministry, family, etc.)
2. Who am I willing to be to create it?

If you are stuck and not moving forward, you may need to gain clarity in one of these areas:

1. Prosperity (Abundance consciousness, all the things we discussed in money energy, etc.)
2. Self-image

Self Image - what does it mean?

Self image is how you see yourself. This may be how you see yourself physically, or your opinion of who and what you are which is normally called self-concept. It is important as it affects your self esteem and confidence.

Self image includes:

- What you think you look like
- How you see your personality
- What kind of person you think you are
- What you believe others think of you
- How much you like yourself or you think others like you
- The status you feel you have

The only thing keeping you from really finding out who you are is the fear of who you might be! A teacher once explained that we live as though there are three aspects to our being:

- Who we pretend to be
  - Who we are afraid we are
  - Who we really are
3. Communication
  4. Relationships
  5. Purpose

Spiritual Success Key # 2

Activating The Power Of Willingness

There is a magnetic power that begins to operate when the spirit of willingness is activated. Being willing is simply the power to say “yes” – even in the midst of doubt, worry, fear, dislikes, being uncomfortable, and everything else your mind can think to tell you. How many times have you become frozen in time because you were too confused to know what to do about an opportunity that is right in front of you?

Being willing says, “This doesn’t feel good, this task is tedious, I am afraid, I don’t quite know what the outcome will be but I am willing.” Being willing is your ticket to creativity, power and fulfillment! Many times we believe that power comes with saying “no” but the opposite is true, it comes with saying “yes”.

One of the problems with the “church” is that most of what we do tends to fall into volunteer status, so we always believe that we have the option to back out, to say “no”, to quit whenever we are tired or don’t feel like it. This kind of wishy-washy behavior has trained us to be lazy and robbed us of the power of willingness—the willingness to say “yes” to what is presented to you.

Spiritual Success Key # 3 Activating The Power Of Release

With willingness also comes the power of surrender. Not in a negative way but in a positive and powerful way.

When you consciously surrender to your divine nature, you are in essence allowing the Holy Spirit to guide you and support every decision you make.

If you persist in thinking that you are alone and must strive harder to manifest what you want, you are fighting against spiritual laws and swimming upstream. To be in control of your reality you must first surrender to it.

Through surrender you will release all fleshy inspired roadblocks which are hindering your ability to manifest your desires. If you cannot surrender it is because the flesh/ego is afraid to evolve. (Remember, the job of your flesh is to keep you small and in your comfort zone.)

When you are in a state of surrender, you are in a place of activating the power of release. This is what I call "My Magic Key!" This key can unlock any door once it is activated.

Release means that you don't hold on to anything. This is truly a spiritual state, not a mental or emotional state. This is the Art of Allowing!
